Principal's Message

Bunnings Bounty

Last Saturday's Bunnings BBQ was a great day, thanks to all of the preparation work done by many people, and the efforts of those who could help out on the day. Oh, and the weather probably helped too. I was flat out for all of the time I was rostered on; taking money from sausage buyers hand over fist. The sausage chefs were lucky to keep up with demand for some of the time I was there!

Thank you to all of those who helped during the day: Jo, Anne, Cindy, Lavinia, Meagan Dean, Carolyn, Sandy and Emily. Thanks to the people who provided assistance of any kind in the preparations. Thanks also to the brilliant minds who suggested that we get our school on the list for a Bunnings event – way back in early 2014. This has been a fantastic combined effort, with a fantastic result of just over $2000 raised for the school!

Sports at Don Valley

Last Friday we played sport at Don Valley against Seville Primary School, once again as part of the Wollombi Cluster group. I was a reluctant footy coach and I am glad that most of the players knew what they had to do, because I didn't really have much of a clue. I do know that the Wollombi team won that game. In the Volleystars game, the Wollombis were not so successful. Netball was also won by the Seville team.

Early Dismissal/Report Distribution Next Friday

Just a reminder that next Friday, being the end of term, we will be dismissing students at 2:30. We will have a shortened lunch break and a short assembly at 2:15.

June reports will also be distributed on Friday. As mentioned in last week's newsletter, 3 Way Conferences will be held on Wednesday of the first week of Term 3. Invitations to the conferences will be distributed next week.

Trivia Night Tonight

Well, as Neil Young wrote, "Tonight's the night". The Trivia Night, that is. I think all of the second hand clothing stores in the district have been cleared out of double breasted pinstripe suits, white ties, frilly dresses and feather boas in preparation for the Gangster theme.

You can still book a seat – just come along and pay at the door and join a table. $10 is all it will cost for 10m rounds of trivia and a lot of entertainment. You might even bag a bargain at the auction – we have over $3000 worth of goodies to sell or raffle. All for a good cause, too.....US!

It's Coming Again

Not sure of the dates yet, but Woolworths is doing Earn & Learn again this year, so look out for the promotional material that should appear pretty soon. I will be interested to see if the opening of the Seville Woolworths store assists us this year.

Have a good week,

Rick

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK

Erin	For continuing to make excellent progress in literacy.
Kale	For comforting another student when the other student was upset. Great role model Kale!
